Dear Ms. Slavik and Mr. Senko:

First, I want to thank you again for all you have done for The Fund for American Studies. It means a great deal to me to have you as a supporter of our program.

You will be pleased to hear that we have now completed our eight-week summer program. This year's class was made up of 363 students from 40 states, 32 countries and representing 218 colleges and universities.

As you know, our students have an active schedule that not only includes attending classes at Georgetown University, but also internships at prestigious companies, think tanks, media outlets, and nonprofit organizations.

They also attended exclusive briefings at some of Washington's most important places of power; such as the US House of Representatives, the Federal Reserve, the White House, the CIA and major embassies here in Washington.

It is thanks to contributions from people like you that we were able to provide these opportunities to so many students this year.

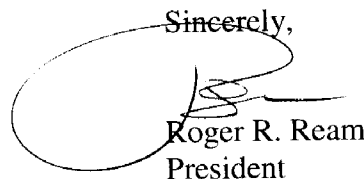

Specifically, your scholarship money has gone to help students like Martin Socuvka, and Miriami Svetkovska who both attended the Institute on Comparative Political & Economic Systems.

Enclosed are their letters of gratitude to you, including highlights from their summer with The Fund. Please know that without your help, this experience would not have been possible for them.

I hope you are as proud as I am of Martin and Miriami, and proud of your own role in making this opportunity available to them.

Thank you again for making it all possible.

Sincerely,

Roger R. Ream
President
