

Ford's Theatre Society,
the American Friends of the Czech Republic and Mr. and Mrs. Frederic V. Malek cordially invite you and a guest to attend a special performance of

THE ACCIDENTAL HERO

A miraculous true story about freedom, World War II, and the inescapable question, "Who am I?"

FORD'S THEATRE
511 Tenth Street, NW, Washington, D.C.

SUNDAY, APRIL 2, 2017

7:00 – 8:30 p.m. Performance followed by a conversation with the artist

RESERVE TICKETS ONLINE:

<https://www.fords.org/productions/accidental-hero/>

THE ACCIDENTAL HERO

The Accidental Hero is written and performed by Patrick Dewane, telling the true story of his grandfather, a World War II officer who miraculously liberated his own grandparents' native villages in Czechoslovakia.

Dewane brings archival material found in his grandfather's basement to glowing life as an enthralling, humorous and heartwarming tale of astonishing coincidences and escapes.

AMERICAN FRIENDS OF THE CZECH REPUBLIC